

Visual Notes Expedition Canvas

version:1.2

There is no manual (yet).

Check assumptions.

Quantify as much as possible.

Sometimes the most important things can't be quantified.

The map is not reality.

Opinions are important.

Facts are more important.

Try to be objective.

Tips/Questions

What's the objective?

Can you reach your objective?

How can you reach your objective?

Do you have resources to reach your objective?

What are risks, opportunities, challenges.

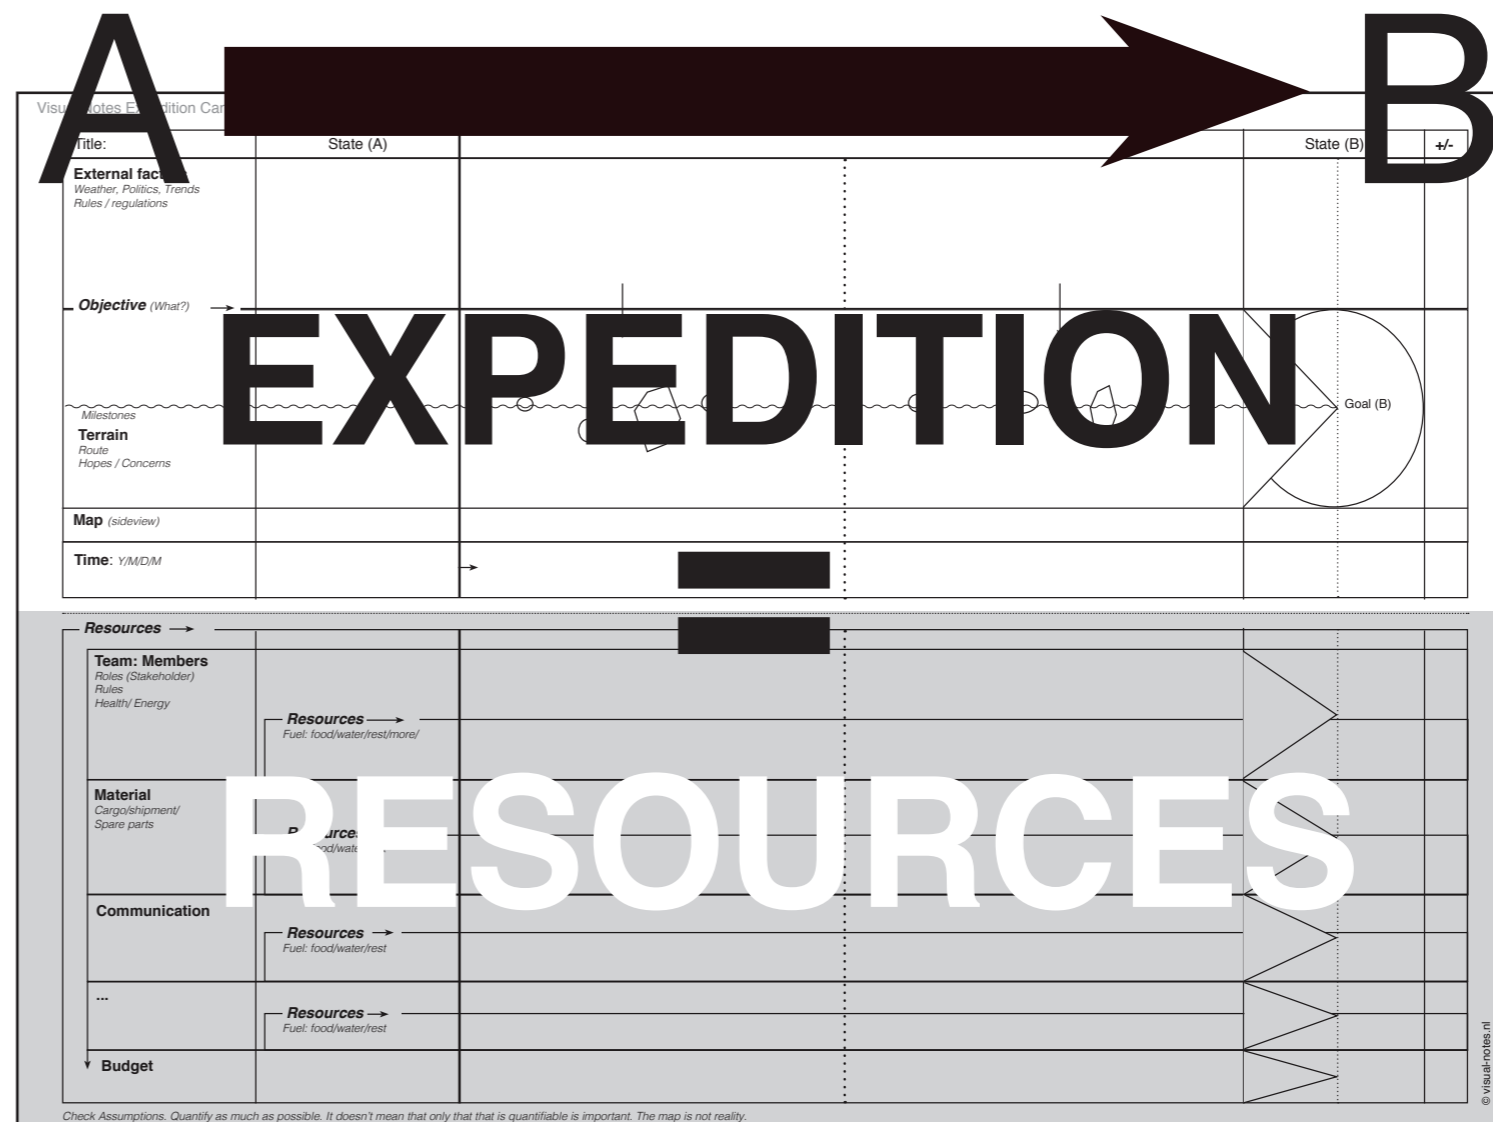

What will change along the way?

What will stay the same?

What's

Does your team have the resources to reach your objective?

HOW DO I GET FROM A TO B?

Check Assumptions. Quantify as much as possible. It doesn't mean that only that that is quantifiable is important. The map is not reality.
